MESAS Special Event

Department of Middle Eastern and South Asian Studies ~ MESAS

An Evening with Sayed Kashua

Sayed Kashua is the author of three novels: Dancing Arabs, Let It Be Morning, and Second Person Singular. Kashua is also a writer and popular columnist for the Israeli newspaper, Ha'aretz, where he often uses satire to critique the life of Palestinian Arabs living in Israel. He is the writer and creator of the hit Israeli TV series, "Arab Labor."
